

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Applicants for the Doctor of Medicine

Griffith upholds a commitment to support people of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander descent to pursue a medical career.

For admission to the Doctor of Medicine commencing in 2023: The First Peoples' Health Pathway is:

Qualification	Griffith University Health Related Degree	Other Degree including Griffith Degrees not listed as Health Related
Required GPA	5 or higher	5 or higher
Required GAMSAT score	Not required, applicants do not need to sit GAMSAT	Minimum requirement overall score of 50 with no sub-score less than 50
Application	Apply through GEMSAS, identifying as Indigenous and including Griffith University as a preference	Apply through GEMSAS, identifying as Indigenous and including Griffith University as a preference
Next Step	Contact medicine@griffith.edu.au and provide GEMSAS application number	Contact medicine@griffith.edu.au and provide GEMSAS application number
GUMSAA Interview	Not required	Not required
First Peoples applicant Interview	Applicants will be interviewed by a panel including representatives from GUMURRI Student Success Unit, the Office of the Pro Vice Chancellor (Indigenous) and Griffith Health.	Applicants will be interviewed by a panel including representatives from GUMURRI Student Success Unit, the Office of the Pro Vice Chancellor (Indigenous) and Griffith Health.

For admission to the Doctor of Medicine commencing from 2024: The First Peoples' Health Pathway will be:

Qualification	All First People Applicants with an Approved Key Degree
Required GPA	5 or higher
GAMSAT	Not required, applicants do not need to sit GAMSAT
Application	Apply through GEMSAS, identifying as Indigenous and including Griffith University as a preference
Next Step	Contact medicine@griffith.edu.au and provide GEMSAS application number
GUMSAA Interview	Not required
First Peoples applicant Interview	Applicants will be interviewed by a panel including representatives from GUMURRI Student Success Unit, the Office of the Pro Vice Chancellor (Indigenous) and Griffith Health.